Mr. Robert C. Berring -
President
American Association of Law Libraries
53 West Jackson Boulevard
Chicago, IL 60604

Dear Mr. Berring:

I am responding for Director Casey, and thank you for your inquiry concerning a visit to the Central Intelligence Agency and a briefing of the members of the American Association of Law Libraries who will attend your 79th Annual Meeting on 6-9 July 1986 in Washington.

Unfortunately, we are unable to accommodate you. As a matter of policy, the Agency does not give tours, nor are we able to provide a briefing.

We nonetheless wish you a successful meeting.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs

Mr. William J. Casey, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

The nation's Law Librarians are coming to Washington, D. C.

The American Association of Law Libraries will hold its 79th Annual Meeting at the Sheraton Washington Hotel, July 6-9, 1986, and we anticipate an attendance of over 2,000. Ours is a national professional organization, composed of law librarians from universities and colleges, law firms, corporations, Federal and State government agencies, bar associations and the court system.

Our 1986 Annual Meeting, and the three-day Institute preceding it at George Washington University, will have the theme: "Our National Resources:" and will focus on the information-rich environment of the Washington, D. C. area. In making program plans, we would like to include a visit to your office.

My purpose in writing is to ask if we can introduce your organization to our membership. We would like to arrange a visit to your facility of whatever size group that you can accommodate, from a walk-through for 10 people to a large meeting or lecture for 200. At this time, our schedule is flexible, and we certainly understand that what we can offer our members will be dependent upon the staff and resources that you may wish to provide.

The Program Chair for our Washington, D. C. activities in July, 1986 is: Professor Alan Holoch, Director of the Law Library, Villanova, University, Villanova, Pennsylvania 19085 (215-645-7022). If you are interested in having your organization included in our program, I know that Professor Holoch will appreciate hearing from you. If we identified a librarian or law librarian in your organization, I have taken the liberty of sending a copy of this letter to him/her.

Your consideration is greatly appreciated. We look forward to hearing from you, and I do hope that your organization will be featured during our forthcoming 1986 Annual Meeting in Washington. D. C.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT C. BERRING
President
